Lt Col Josuelito Worrell

Lieutenant Colonel Josuelito (Joe) Worrell is the director of the Contingency Support Directorate, Headquarters Air Force Civil Engineer Support Agency, Tyndall AFB, Florida. He is responsible for developing and implementing readiness standards for active and Air Reserve Component forces and oversees contingency training for the Air Force civil engineer community. He is the executive manager for Prime Base Engineer Emergency Force (Prime BEEF) and RED HORSE programs, as well as Air Force fire protection, explosive ordnance disposal and disaster preparedness programs. In addition, he manages the $450 million Air Force Contract Augmentation Program and directs the Air Force Civil Engineer Readiness Center. Additionally, he plans and executes Readiness Challenge, a biennial, multi-organizational, international, war skills competition.

Lieutenant Colonel Worrell is a career engineer. He graduated from the University of Florida in 1979 and received his commission through Officer Training School that same year. He has been a base engineer three times and commanded the 4404th Civil Engineer Squadron at Prince Sultan Air Base, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and the 99th Civil Engineer Squadron at Nellis AFB, Nevada. Prior to this assignment he was a student at Air War College, Maxwell AFB, Alabama. He was selected for promotion with a pin-on date in 2001.
